1 Introduction

The following is a Quality Manual for enforcing the 'Kani Shawl' GI.

Kani Shawl has been registered under the Geographical Indications (GI) of Goods Act of India, having GI No. 51, Certificate No. 83 in the Class of Goods 25 as on 13th February 2006.

The GI Act has the provision for geographically specific handicrafts to be registered under the Act. The registration is an acknowledgement of the fact that a given handicraft is unique and is produced in a particular area, with traditional knowledge and skills that are special to a region.

The effect of the registration is that the craft in question is accorded legal protection in the market place. No manufacturer, other than those recognized by the registration may claim to produce that particular handicraft or sell it under the name recognized by the registration.

TAHAFUZ, a society of Kashmiri artisans, registered under the J&K Societies Act and bearing Registration No. 5611-S/ 2007, are the "Registered Proprietors" of Kani Shawl.

This Quality Manual intends to detail out all necessary aspects in terms of standards and benchmarks, methods, procedures, etc. that shall provide the reference for ensuring proper enforcement, implementation and use of the Kani Shawl GI after due testing and certification in a commercial context.

2 Kani Shawl GI Specifications

The “Kani Shawl” is a registered GI (Geographical Indication), having No. 51 and Certificate No. 83 in the Classes of Goods 25; Clothing, as on 13th February 2006

As a title “Kani Shawl” can not be used other than those subscribing to the specification regarding raw material, production process and finished goods other than those registered as the “Kani Shawl” GI.

The Specifications for “Kani Shawl” as registered under the GI are:

1. It is hand woven, using a number of ‘Kanis’ or ‘Tujlis’ is place of a shuttle for the weft yarns, ‘Kani’ is a small eyeless wooden spoke with coloured yarn that is inserted round a specified number of warp threads as per the design.
2. Is woven in the Twill Tapestry Weave with interlocking of weft yarns at each colour joining.
3. Is woven with the help of written instructions in the form of ‘Talim’.
4. Is made of warp and weft yarns that have been dyed in varied colours following traditional methods and
5. Is woven by traditional artisans of Kashmir.

The GI registration mandates that only crafts produced in a particular region and sold only in a prescribed manner can be labeled as the authentic GI; all other forms are spurious and therefore an infringement of the GI rights of the community registered as the proprietor in the GI Registry. Legal action may be initiated against those not subscribing to the specified benchmarks or other conditions implied under the GI Act.

3 Testing of “Kani Shawl”
